6. TERMINATION:

a). Either party gives written notice of termination of the Lease to the other party 60 days or more before the end of the term (whether the initial term or a renewal) or 30 days prior to the end of any month-to-month term; ors b). Landlord provides Tenant with written notice at least 30 days prior to the end of any term that any renewal of the term will be at a different amount of rent. In that event, any renewal term will automatically be at the stated new rent, unless Tenant provides Landlord with written notice of Tenant's intent to vacate the Premises at the end of the term within 10 days after Landlord provides notice of the change.

c). In the event that this Tenancy is terminated by giving written notice of termination, Tenant understands and agrees that any such notice shall NOT BE EFFECTIVE until the LAST DAY of the initial Term of the Lease, or until the LAST DAY of any renewal or month-to-month term, regardless of what date the written notice of termination is provided and regardless of what date Tenant may specify as his intended "move out" date in any such notice.

d). In the event Tenant terminates this tenancy prior to the ending date of the term set forth in paragraph 1, above, Tenant shall be in breach of this Tenancy Agreement, for which Landlord may exercise the rights set forth in paragraph 4. Tenant will remain obligated for all outstanding payments set forth in paragraph 2, above, until either the tenancy term expires, or the Landlord is able to re-rent the Premises to new tenants for the same rent, in addition to any other damages provided for in this Agreement by law.

e). If tenant chooses to terminate this tenancy without further liability to Landlord for rent and charges payments, however, Landlord will agree to accept such early termination, only upon the condition that tenant first satisfies the following requirements:

•Provides Landlord with written notice at least 60 days in advance;

•Pays all charges that are due and owing under this Agreement through the proposed date of early termination;

•Satisfies all conditions set forth in paragraph 5, above;
